

photo by Randy Barron, FDNY Photo Unit

Thanks to the efforts of Lieutenant Neil Skow (retired from Haz-Mat 1, as well as the Army), the above banner was brought back from the 1st Infantry Division's Sustainment Brigade and proudly displayed in the Bureau of Training auditorium for two months.

photo by Robert Domingo, FDNY Photo Unit

Bay Crane lowers the 9/11-damaged Ladder 3 at a ceremony held at the World Trade Center Memorial on July 20, 2011. The new Ladder 3 is in the background.

photo by Allen Epstein

Queens Box 44-9642, 112-12 Jamaica Avenue/112th Street, August 22, 2011.

photo by Allen Epstein

Queens Box 75-7203, Skillman/49th Avenues (Amtrak yard), July 24, 2011. Diesel locomotive was removed to 39th Street/Northern Boulevard, where units extinguished the fire.

photo by Benny Stumbo, New York Post

Brooklyn Box 22-3907, 3401 Clarendon Road/East 34th Street, May 31, 2011.

photo by Bill Tompkins

Bronx Box 33-2771, 1520 Sheridan Avenue/Grand Concourse, August 6, 2011.

photo by FF Ken Gunther, Ladder 138

Queens Box 75-9311, 126-20 35th Avenue/126th Street, August 20, 2011.

photo by Mary DiBlase Blutch for the New York Times

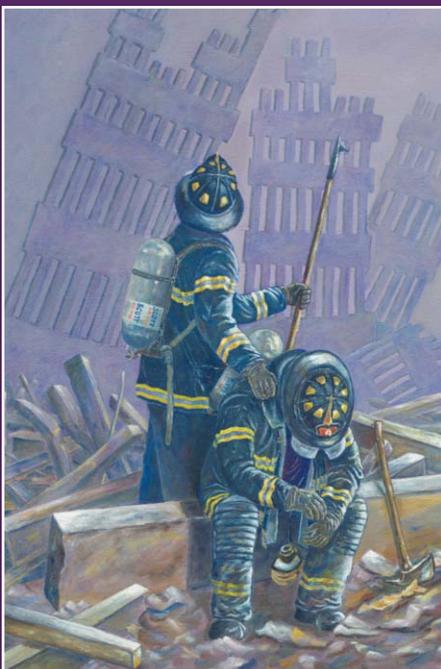

Staten Island Box 33-0252, 18 St. Paul's Avenue/Victory Boulevard, July 12, 2011.

Photo Reporter

photo by FF Peter Brady, Ladder 174

Brooklyn Box 75-1635, 181 Rockaway Parkway/Clarkson Avenue, June 8, 2011.

Depth of Sorrow artwork by FF Anibal "Andy" Collazo, retired from Engine 251.

photo by FF Michael Gomez, Squad 288

Queens Box 22-7278 (10-60), 52-35 58th Street/52nd Avenue, sanitation garage, August 17, 2011. Sanitation salt spreader crashed through exterior wall and was hanging from third floor of garage. Truck returned to third floor by private crane company.

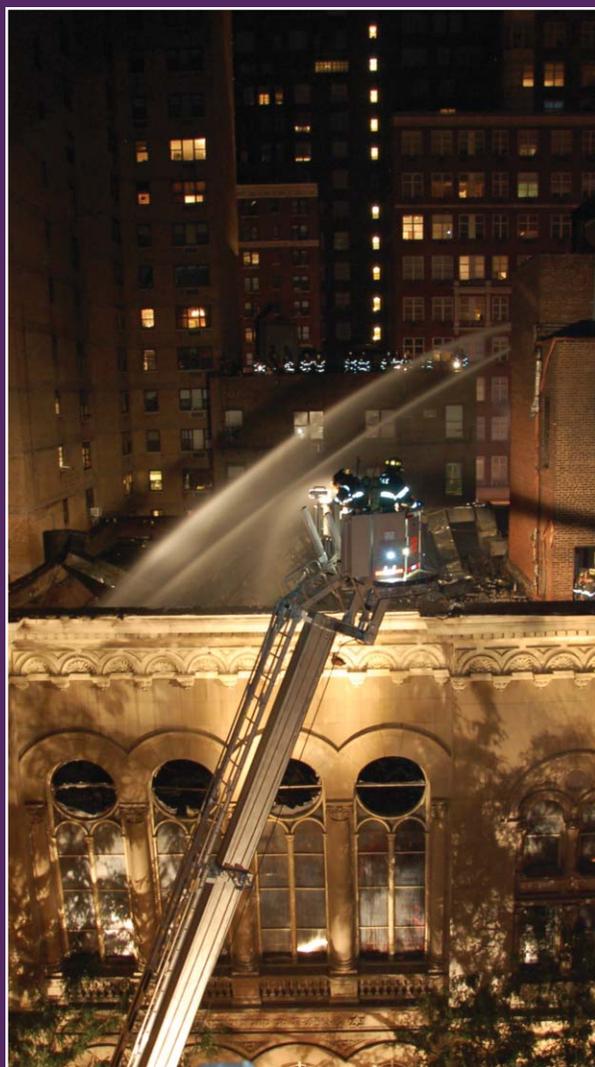

photo by Bill Tompkins

Manhattan Box 44-1157, 121 East 85th Street/Park Avenue, synagogue fire, July 11, 2011.