RETIRED MEMBERS

by Frank Cull

The FDNY Retirees Reunion will be held on May 11, 1994, at the Original Antun's in Queens Village, New York. For information, write to: FDNY Old Timers Reunion, P.O. Box 58, Pearl River, NY 10965. . . . Brother Ed O'Sullivan sends word that the Las Vegas, Nevada, Division of the Grand Council of the FDNY Retiree Organizations is back in service. Any interested members should contact George DeRoth at 8308 Harbour Shores Court, Las Vegas, NV 89128 or ring him up at (702) 228-0410. . . . There was good news for those who participate in one of New York City's five pension funds: The funds averaged a 14.7 percent rate of return last year. That average return was better than about two-thirds of the nation's largest 34 public pension funds surveyed by Trust Universe Comparison Service, a division of Wilshire Associates in California. . . . For the first time, all Medicare beneficiaries will be eligible for free flu shots, reports the Health Care Financing Administration. Adding flu shots to the list of covered benefits comes none too soon. . . . Marty Henry, who garnered an enviable reputation at Ladder Co. 42, followed by a stint as chief of the West Point Fire Department, has put in his papers again. This time, he retired as a vice president of the National Fire Protection Association. May the wind be always at your back, Marty!! . . . Nice gesture by Jim Cersosimo and his Gene O'Kane Division in New Port Richey, Florida. Spouses of deceased members are the organization's guests at all functions and are also provided with transportation, courtesy of the organization. . . . 'Til next time, remember: "We must always have old memories and young hopes!"
