Members had their hands full with this overturned L.I.R.R. car. Car contained 3,000 gallons of gasoline, and was spilling its lethal load over the surrounding area. Members of Engine Co. 238 spread a foam blanket over the area, while members of Engine Co. 259 accomplished the washdown. Box 7216 was transmitted for this incident which occurred on November 18, 1981.

The above photo was taken during the FDNY Anchor Club's annual visit to Calvary Hospital. Jimmy Dangler strums the old guitar, to the delight of the patients, during the show which was held on November 22, 1981. That's Anchor Club President Joe Ginley, Eng. Co. 8, Commissioner and Mrs. Thomas Dillon, and Deputy Borough Commander Joseph DeMeo (Bklyn.) in the background.

This congenial trio took time out during the Welfare Fund check presentation ceremony to display the brand new "Tin House Turkey Trot" shirts. Chief O'Regan, coordinator for the Fire Department's jogging program, was at headquarters to accept the check for that program. Lining up for this W.N.Y.F. photo, on Nov. 25, 1981, were (l. to r.) Exec. Ass't Gerard O'Donnell, Deputy Fire Commissioner Christine R. Godek, and Battalion Chief John O'Regan.
